1226 (5 May) Bishop Andrew confirms the eight prebends created by Bp. Bricius. He also states that the prebend of Strathouen belongs to the Chancellor; the prebend of Fothervais, a simple canonry, is to be 'pro tempore' the bishop's prebend, giving him a place in the Chapter. The prebends are listed 'in order': Rynyn {Rhynie}; Dunbanan &amp; Kynnoir; Innerketheny; Elchy &amp; Buttharry; Moy; Cromdol &amp; Aduyn. He then defines the prebend of the Dean to be the altarage of Eren {Auldearn}; "necnon" the chapel of Invernarren {Nairn} which he has assigned to the subdean along with the church of Dolays Mychel {Dallas} with its manse and croft. He creates a prebend for the succentor (at the supplication of Richard the precentor) out of the church of Rathed, saving four marks annually which are to be the precentor's, and annexes the church of Fothervais. He confirms Walter de Moravia to be the patron of the new prebends of Petty &amp; Brachlie and Botriphne &amp; Aberlour. The canons are to have the same rights as those enjoyed by the canons of Lincoln. Enacted at the Synod held in the church of St Egidii {St Giles}, abbot, in Elgin, 5 May, 1226. (Reg. Robert	Treasurer	1237	Registrum Episcopatus Moraviensis	101
1237 (May) Be it known that since before the memory of man, the church of Urquhard provided ministrations in the lands of Meft, Inays {Innes}, Sallelcot {?Calcot NGR NJ 24_63_}, Byn {Binn} and Garmauch {Garmouth}, and was wont to receive the tiends thereof, the church of Urquhard having three parts and the church of Essil two. But this has proved difficult. Thus Willelmo, prior of Urchard, on the one part and Roberto, treasurer of Moray also rector of Essil {his prebend as Treasurer}, on the other, having supplicated Symoni, dean of Moray, and the Cathedral's Chapter, and Andrew, bishop of Moray, as diocesan, it is agreed that the church of Urquhard (and the prior and bretheren) are to have all of the tiends of the above lands. They, in return, are to pay to Robert and his successors, 24 merks sterling per annum, half at Pentecost and half at Martinmas, starting at the following Martinmas {11 November}. Any party failing in this agreement shall be subject to a penalty of 'xii denarios per day' {1 shilling a day}. All this with the approval of the abbot and community of Dunfermline Abbey {as mother house}. Enacted at Kinneddar.  (Reg. Mor., no.89)  [Witnesses: William, prior.Urquhard; brother Adam, monk.Urquhard; Andrew, monk.Urquhard; Henry, monk.Urquhard.]
