Thomas Fordyce, de	Perpetual Vicar	1432		Calendar of Scottish Supplications to Rome 1428-1432 [CSSR, iii	251
7 September, 1432 It is represented for part of Thomas de Fourdeice, perpetual vicar of perpetual vicarage of Albernethy and Inneralayn, canonically united, Moray diocese (£6 sterling), that after Henry Buge, alleged clerk, Caithness diocese, had obtained canonical possession of perpetual vicarage of parish church of Hawkirk, said diocese, canonically collated, he held it for more than three years without having himself promoted to priesthood, and canonry and prebend of Okik in church of Caithness are known to be void, therefore Thomas supplicates that Pope would provide him to the same (£5 sterling), void as above or howsoever. Concessum ut petitur in presencia d.n. Pape. B.Graden. Rome, St Peter's, 7 Id. Sept., anno 2.
William Brymay, de	Vicar	1431		Calendar of Scottish Supplications to Rome 1428-1432 [CSSR, iii	170
March/April, 1431 William de Brymay, priest, Moray diocese, - that Pope would provide him to vicarages of Abirnethy and Enralayne, Moray diocese (£8 sterling), void because Thomas de Fordyce held them against Constitution 'Execrabilis' for three years and more without apostolic dispensation, and would dispense him to hold said vicarages (which are of little value) together for life, with power of exchange. Concessum ut petitur in presencia d.n. Pope. G.Cons. [Crossed through and undated, and no reason given. Probably March or April, anno 1.]
Thomas Fordyce, de	Vicar	1432		Fasti Ecclesiae Scoticae Medii Aevi: ad annum 1638	243
Occ. as dean of an unidentified deanery and as vic. Abernethy and Inverallan 9 Jan 1432; these vics. lay in Strathspey Deanery.
